Be part of the yarn fun on The Crochet-Cruises.com with The Crochet Crowd hosted by Mikey and Diva Dan.

It's more than just crocheting on a ship, it's about the laughs and being part of a larger community to meet new friends and to learn new ideas.

Photo by Nina & Frank that came on our Hawaii Cruise. Thank you!

We HOOK, we DANCE and we enjoy the adventures to our destinations.

Crocheting just doesn't get any better!

Hookin' the High Seas With The Crochet Crowd

Content

Both Michael and I love to cruise but that was not so in the beginning. A few years ago we went on our first cruise and well, it was not what we expected it to be. It was disappointing. Michael never thought to bring his crochet! So what happened, he went stir crazy. Me on the other hand, you can sit me on the balcony and life is great!

That very first cruise and we came to realize we were missing an important part of having fun on a cruise and that was having friend. For Michael, it was getting to know people to crochet with and gossip. So we thought, what if we invited our community to join us for a good hookin' old time on the high seas! A year later, we did our first Crochet Cruise, and now a few cruises later, we have created something entirely amazing. A community that loves getting together, re-meeting each other on future cruises, laughing, expressing comfort & thankfulness and most importantly, sharing our love, passion and knowledge of crochet.

Cruising is like a floating hotel taking you to exotic destinations to discover a whole wonderful adventure beyond the everyday living at home. Cruising is exciting, giving you a taste of paradises and far north communities.

Whether you are a seasoned cruiser or a newbie who have always wanted to get away to have enjoy time to yourself, we have created the Crochet Cruises for those that love to crochet! It is about getting together as a cyber community. With your stateroom, food, entertainment and even casinos, are all provided on these cruises, you can enjoy and explore more then just wrapping a ball of yarn

~ Diva Dan

Cruising doesn't have to be lonely. Why not enjoy it with new found friends & enjoy spending the days creating and crocheting with your favourite yarns and patterns?

63% SOLD OUT

As of March 15th, 2017

Please check out our website Crochet-Cruises.com

to find our more details including pricing, shore excursions, hotels, transportation and even Project Linus for each of the events.

Pricing

Once on our website, choose the dream cruise you want. Click on Stateroom/Price. This will take you to the brief information on the staterooms.

For pricing click the button Click here for Pricing and Cabin Choices. This will take you to Sherry's dedicated cruise planner page. Please remember that prices will change over time. Sherry keeps an updated version of all the new prices available to us on her pages. Cruise lines can increase prices without notice.

Here you can choose your choice of cabins and fill out the form. Nothing will be charge until you have personally talked to Sherry on the phone to confirm what you are looking for. Please note that you have 4 days to respond back to Sherry if she has left messages. Non-responses to messages will result in cabins and pricing at the time to be forfeited

Activity Fee

Please note to be part of our classes and to be part of the crochet program with Mikey and The Crochet Crowd, there is an Activity Fee. This includes an amazing bag of goodies filled with yarn and accessories that will be gifted to all that participate. Our classes are organized based on the ship's itinerary; however, we do not have classes when we are docked in an exotic location. Classes are only while cruising.

For the Eastern and Western Caribbean, the fee is separate and will be added to your cruise ticket to the cruise price; however, for Southern and Alaska, the Activity fee is included in the price. If you have family members not involved in our activity, mention it to Sherry and the deduction will be taken off for Southern and/or Alaska cruise tickets.

Thanks Everyone for your Interest!

-Michael, Daniel & Jeanne (the Crochet-Cruises.Com team)

Please note, once we are sold out there is no more room to host due to the size of the conference rooms. Don't delay. Also, Sherry books blocks of cabins. Once a block is sold out, she will request another block but prices will go up. It is best to book soon.

Sherry Leybovich is our dedicated Cruise Planner for the Crochet-Cruises.com. All bookings must go through her to keep our group together. There is a whole lot of planning behind the scenes.

With fantastic first-hand knowledge of the cruising industry and organizing her own groups, combined with excellent worth ethics, she has won many travel awards and, personally, we are very thankful that she is part of our team. For more information on Sherry or FAQ regarding purchasing etc. you can go to our website or you can contact her directly
